

Figure 1: Random variables (circles) represent each of the N patients tested. Each factor node (squares) represents the compatibility of the test/measurement μ with the relevant patient variable values. The degree of the factors nodes is K and of the variable nodes is L .