

Figure 1: Mode indexing. Red circles correspond to modes traveling radially outwards, and green circles to modes traveling radially inwards. Positive and negative values of  $m$  correspond to different azimuthal orders. Black squares indicate evanescent modes of which there is a countably infinite number.