

Figure 1: Example causal graph with hidden confounding. X : Observed covariates, U : Hidden confounders, T : Treatment, Y : Outcome. Direct edges denote causal relations and the bidirectional edge signifies possible correlation.