

Reflection-extension with splitting point  $u$ . The last part of the original walk is drawn in gray, the modified walk is drawn in black. Note that the distance between  $u'$  and  $g_e(u')$  is bounded by an absolute constant, so the increase in length will become negligible when the length of the original walk is large.