

Mode indexing. Red circles correspond to modes travelling radially outwards, and the green circles to modes travelling radially inwards. Positive and negative values of  $m$  correspond to different azimuthal orders. Black squares indicate evanescent modes of which there is a countably infinite number.