

Figure 1: The Penrose diagram of the CPT conjugated of the TCC-violating expanding solution that satisfies our assumptions. If we start with the past vacuum state, there will be particle production at the moment of transition from Phase II to Phase I. Under our assumptions, Phase I lasts long enough to blue-shift those particles to trans-Planckian energies that violate the EFT.