

A plot of the running time of our algorithm for . The x -axis corresponds to the approximation ratio, while the y -axis corresponds to the base of the exponent in the running time. A point (β, d) in the plot describes a running time of the form $d^k \cdot n^{(1)}$ for a β -approximation.