

image.png

Figure 1: Saddle moves can be used to turn connect summands that are 2-component links into knots, as in the Link Lemma . Twist moves are indicated with a purple segment and crossing changes by highlighting the crossing.