

The computational model consists of a computing machine (any physical object) M described by a set of complex differential operators \mathbf{L} . $|\mathbf{f}\rangle$ and $\mathbf{L}|\mathbf{f}\rangle = |\mathbf{f}'\rangle$ are the inputs and outputs analytic complex functions.

