

Figure 1: A simple instance of the Interval Debt Model (IDM). Numbers in square boxes represent the assets of the node (for example, 30 for node u), directed edges represent debts, and the label on an edge represents the terms of the associated debt (for example, u must pay v 20 between time 1 and time 3).