

Figure 1: The vector w' describes the direction from which the sequence of support vectors $(p_n)_{n \in N}$ approaches the limit p . Notice that the point x has the largest w' -component among all points on the corresponding face of C .