Example causal graph with hidden confounding. $X$: Observed covariates, $U$: Hidden confounders, $T$: Treatment, $Y$: Outcome. Direct edges denote causal relations and the bidirectional edge signifies possible correlation.