A simple instance of the Interval Debt Model (IDM). Numbers in square boxes represent the assets of the nodes (for example, €30 for node u), directed edges represent debts, and the labels on the edges indicate the terms of the associated debts (for example, node u must pay node v €20 between times 1 and 3).